Publication history

Walker's Quarterly, No. 22 William Callow"p. 43. William Callow Autobiography, chapter II: "In December of this year 91833) the boat containing the Luxor, having been towed from Egypt to Havre and up the Seine to Paris, was moored close to the Place de la Concorde, when the obelisk was hauled on a staging, erected for the purpose, to the pedestal on which it now stands. I made a sketch of the boat containing the obelisk, on the spot. ""
