

Basic Detail Report

PA-F01980-0021

Title
The Thames Near Marble Hill, Twickenham

Dimensions
0.56 x 0.88 (22 1/16 x 34 5/8 inches)

Provenance
Probably Lord Frederick Campbell (1729-1816), third son of the third Duke of Argyll, and by descent to his niece, Anne (1766-1852) who married Sir Alexander Johnstone (1775-1849) and to Miss Campbell-Johnstone, Christie's, 11 June 1887 (63) bought General J. H. Campbell-Johnstone (£126), by descent in the Campbell-Johnstone Family, sale Sotheby's, 25 May 1955 (119) bought Fine Arts Society (£420), Malcolm macdonald, O. M. ;

Sotheby's 16 July 1975 (21) bought Agnew's (£7, 500), acquired from Thomas Agnew's and Sons for Marble Hill House Agnew's and Sons for Marble Hill House with grants from the N. A. C. F., The Victoria & Albert Museum and the Pilgrim Trust; Greater London Council (Marble Hill House)

Exhibition history
Somerset House, London and the Thames, July-October 1977 (32)

Publication history
W.G. Constable, Wilson, (version of 57a)